Team Camp – July 6th-9th 2017

$240 Commuter

$290 Commuter with meals (3 Lunches & 3 Dinners)

$330 Resident (Housing & Meals)

Available to all Middle School/High School Teams

The University of Idaho Team Camp provides you with an opportunity to pull your team together and push toward peak performance while preparing for the upcoming season. Teams will be guaranteed a minimum of 3 practices and 12 matches. Typically we get 15-25 teams that participate so teams have the opportunity to compete against other teams you usually don't face during your regular season. In addition, we offer other opportunities for teams to learn and grow in the areas of: strength and conditioning, nutrition, speed and agility, wash drills, and various team building exercises. Each team will be provided with an additional camp coach to assist you during practices and matches. Our entire coaching staff will be available to assist players and coaches throughout the camp.

There is a minimum of 8 players per team required.

One coach will be admitted free of charge, additional coaches is a fee of $130. Our camp is open to any and all entrants (limited only by number, age, grade level and/or gender).

Youth Camp, July 10-12, 2017

$90 Commuter Camp only

9:00-11:30 each day

Entering Grades 3rd - 5th

In an effort to promote the growth of volleyball, the University of Idaho is offering a skills camp for younger kids who are interested in the sport. Youth Camp will teach basic skills through various techniques that will simulate the movements and skills necessary to play the game. Our goal will be highlighting the fun you can have with volleyball while promoting all the positive aspects of sports. Lightweight balls and lower nets are used to help first-time campers have success and enjoy their overall experience. No previous experience is necessary. All Youth campers will receive a UI camp T-shirt at the conclusion of camp on the final day. Our camp or is open to any and all entrants (limited only by number, age, grade level and/or gender).
